

Bountiful Clatskanie!

The Clatskanie Farmers Market Weekly Newsletter

The Coolest Little Market in Oregon!

July 27th 2019

Annual Bee Education Day - Free Kids Activities - Live Country Music!

In between hitting all the hottest garage sales in Clatskanie this Saturday, be sure to stop by the farmers market to celebrate all things bees!

- ❖ Vendors will be sharing tips, tricks (and sweet honey) with you and answering all of your beekeeping questions!
- ❖ There will be a literature display from OSU Extension and the Xerces Society with free information to take home!

- ❖ Each market shopper will receive a free organic clover honey stick (from Glory Bee!) to enjoy as they tour the market!
- ❖ Many of our vendors have put extra care and time into their wares, crafts, and yummy food offerings to include honey ingredients or bee-related crafts!
- ❖ Beekeepers will talk about the history of beekeeping, show off their specialized equipment and introduce you to their wonderful observation live bee hives!
- ❖ You'll get to taste the difference between a light "Spring" flavor and the heartier "Summer" honey... from the same bees!
- ❖ Free activities for the kids will include fun crafts such as candle making and fill a seed packet for pollinators, storytime at 11am and 1pm, and a hands-on hive exploration with beekeeping equipment!

Come by on Saturday. See what all the buzz is about! Buy yourself (or your loved one) some local honey! All of this and more... at our little market in Copes' Park! 10am-2pm! Bee there!

Our artisan vendors, farmers, and the food cart will all have very special things to offer you tomorrow; and our sound stage will echo with the incredible country sounds of The Bloomers!
